

The Little Elm Police Association is hosting an event in honor of

Sergeant Allen Weertman

Allen Weertman who is a Sergeant for the Little Elm Police Department underwent a major life changing surgery. During his recovery he experienced additional complications from the operation. Due to a pre-existing condition Allen does not qualify for short or long term disability and has been forced to exhaust all of his employee benefits leaving him with no income.

The Little Elm Police Association is asking for your assistance

Allen began his career by serving as an MP in the Army and was honorably discharged at the rank of E-4 Specialist. Allen has been in law enforcement for approximately 17 years and has dedicated his life to serving our country and public service. Now is the time to repay him for his dedication and help one of our fellow officer's in need!!
