Fifth Citizens Police Academy accepting applications

LITTLE ELM (February 23, 2017) Events of the last few months, especially those close to home, have served to deepen residents' appreciation for the work of Little Elm Police Officers, and a program that gives civilians a closer look at the department's inner workings has begun accepting applications,

Applications for participation in the fifth annual Citizens Police Academy are now being accepted and reviewed. Little Elm residents, owners of Little Elm businesses and people who volunteer for any of Little Elm's various programs are given first priority for the limited spaces in the class. Outside applicants may be added if room is available. Deadline to apply is 5 p.m., Friday, March 10.

Weekly classes start on Thursday, March 23 and continue consecutively for 14 weeks, usually on Thursday evenings from 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the Little Elm Public Safety Building, 88 West Eldorado Parkway. Exceptions to the Thursday class schedule, usually moved to Saturdays, will be announced as the class progresses.

Participants will be exposed to a wide variety of information related to virtually every aspect of law enforcement, including the internal operations of the Department, the hiring and promotion process, Traffic Division operations, accident investigations, the use of radar and LIDAR, Patrol Division procedures, SWAT operations, and the court process.

Specialized sections will cover the School Resource Officer program, Crime Prevention, Marine Patrol, Crime Scene Investigations, along with a variety of other law enforcement tasks. Participants will have the opportunity to go to the range and fire a number of weapons, including pistol, rifle and shotgun.

Of most interest among previous attendees are "ride alongs" with on-duty officers during regular patrols to observe actual field operations.

Background checks are completed on potential attendees. As in the previous four years, seats will fill up quickly. Anyone interested in participating should download the paperwork from <http://www.littleelm.org/DocumentCenter/View/9087> or contact Officer Marcus Maxie at mmxie@littleelm.org. Officer Maxie will reply with an application form and waiver of liability.

Application forms and waivers of liability are also available at the Little Elm Police Department during normal business hours. Questions regarding the program may be directed to Lt. Jimmy Lewis, jlewis@littleelm.org. Both the application and waiver of liability must be fully completed and received by the deadline in order to be considered.
